

MPA PROPOSED RULE CHANGES – ELECTIONS

CURRENT RULES	PROPOSED RULE CHANGES
14 – MEMBERS OF COUNCIL (1) The Council of Management of the Association shall consist of 14 members and shall be elected each year by a direct voting system as provided in Rule 15. The Executive Officers shall be elected by and from the Council of Management. The election of the executive officers shall occur at the next Council meeting immediately following the declaration of Councillors-elect by the returning officer.	14 – MEMBERS OF COUNCIL (1) The Council of Management of the Association shall consist of 14 members and shall be elected every 2 (two) years by a direct voting system as provided in Rule 15, commencing from 2014. The Executive Officers shall be elected by and from the Council of Management. The election of the executive officers shall occur at the next Council meeting immediately following the declaration of Councillors-elect by the returning officer.
15 – ELECTION OF COUNCIL (1) At least six weeks before the Annual Meeting of each year the returning officer shall forward by post to each member and Life Member of the Association a nomination form for each position of the Council with a notification thereon or therewith of the opening and closing dates and time of such nominations. The roll of voters for the election shall close 7 days before the date on which nominations open. The aforesaid notification shall also state:	15 – ELECTION OF COUNCIL (1) Nominations for elections will open on the first Monday of July in the year elections are due to be held. The returning officer shall forward by post to each member and Life Member of the Association a nomination form for each position of the Council with a notification thereon or therewith of the opening and closing dates and time of such nominations. The roll of voters for the election shall close 7 days before the date on which nominations open. The aforesaid notification shall also state:
16 - BALLOT (1) The result of the ballot for each Council position and the subsequent Council ballot for each Executive Officer position shall be declared at the next occurring Council meeting and the successful candidates shall be installed in their office at the Annual General Meeting.	16 - BALLOT (1) The result of the ballot for each council position and the subsequent Council ballot for each Executive Officer position shall be declared a the next occurring Council meeting and successful candidates shall be installed in their office at the Annual General Meeting in an election year.
17 – DURATION OF OFFICES (1) Elected members of the Council shall hold office from the Annual Meeting until their successors are installed.	17 – DURATION OF OFFICES (1) Elected members of the Council shall hold office from the Annual Meeting in an election year until their successors are installed.
25 - ANNUAL MEETING An Annual Meeting of members shall take place on a date determined by the Council of Management and that date shall be not later than 15 months after the Annual Meeting held in the preceding year. At this meeting the audited balance sheets and revenue statement shall be presented, together with a Presidential report. The ballot for election of members of the Council of Management for the ensuing year shall be declared and these members shall be installed in office; provided, however, that this installation shall be the last item of business.	25 - ANNUAL MEETING An Annual Meeting of members shall take place on a date determined by the Council of Management and that date shall be not later than 15 months after the Annual Meeting held in the preceding year. At this meeting the audited balance sheets and revenue statement shall be presented, together with a Presidential report. The ballot for election of members of the Council of Management for the ensuing 2 years shall be declared and these members shall be installed in office; provided, however, that this installation shall be the last item of business.